Project report online

Old and new landmark of Vienna's Simmering district.

The comprehensive fit-out work went far beyond the usual trades of master builders, HVACR and other skilled professions. They furthermore included the dismantling and re-installation of the dome structure, cable cutting work on the existing shell, demolition of the cut material as well as the rehabilitation of the existing façade.

The usable areas were handed over in stages beginning in May 2001 with final completion taking place in July 2001.

- Gross floor area: 97,000m²
- Usable floor space: 62,000m²
- Concrete: 45,500m²
- Reinforcement: 5,300t
